

Cordoba Minerals Completes Second Tranche of Share Issuance

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA, July 16, 2020: Cordoba Minerals Corp. (TSXV:CDB; OTCQB:CDBMF) ("Cordoba" or the "Company") announces today that it has completed the Second Tranche of the previously announced issuance of shares (refer to Cordoba's news release dated March 30, 2020). A total of 4,660,176 common shares of the Company (the "Second Tranche Shares") have been issued at a price of $0.0732 per Second Tranche Share, representing an aggregate value of approximately $341,124.88 (US$250,000 on the deemed conversion date).

As previously described, the Shares were issued to two arm's length parties in connection with Cordoba obtaining an extension on certain obligations due under the Alacran option agreement, and in consideration for work and services provided by the parties.

Cordoba has completed its acquisition of a 100% interest in the Alacran Copper-Gold-Silver Deposit and the Alacran mineral title is fully secured (refer to Cordoba's news release dated July 2, 2020).

The Second Tranche Shares are subject to a four-month and one day hold period from the date of issue.

About Cordoba

Forward-Looking Statements

This news release includes “forward-looking statements” and “forward-looking information” within the meaning of Canadian securities legislation. All statements included in this news release, other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements including, without limitation, statements with respect to the focus of the Company. Forward-looking statements include predictions, projections and forecasts and are often, but not always, identified by the use of words such as “anticipate”, “believe”, “plan”, “estimate”, “expect”, “potential”, “target”, “budget” and “intend” and statements that an event or result “may”, “will”, “should”, “could” or “might” occur or be achieved and other similar expressions and includes the negatives thereof.

Forward-looking statements are based on a number of assumptions and estimates that, while considered reasonable by management based on the business and markets in which the Company operates, are inherently subject to significant operational, economic, and competitive uncertainties, risks and contingencies. These include assumptions regarding, among other things: general business and economic conditions; the availability of additional exploration and mineral project financing; the supply and demand for, inventories of, and the level and volatility of the prices of metals; relationships with strategic partners; the timing and receipt of governmental permits and approvals; the timing and receipt of community and landowner approvals; changes in regulations; political factors; the accuracy of the Company’s interpretation of drill results; the geology, grade and continuity of the Company’s mineral deposits; the availability of equipment, skilled labour and services needed for the exploration and development of mineral properties; and currency fluctuations. There can be no assurance that forward-looking statements will prove to be accurate and actual results, and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the Company’s expectations include actual exploration results, interpretation of metallurgical characteristics of the mineralization, changes in project parameters as plans continue to be refined, future metal prices, availability of capital and financing on acceptable terms, general economic, market or business conditions, uninsured risks, regulatory changes, delays or inability to receive required approvals, unknown impact related to potential business disruptions stemming from the COVID-19 outbreak, or another infectious illness, and other exploration or other risks detailed herein and from time to time in the filings made by the Company with securities regulators, including those described under the heading “Risks and Uncertainties” in the Company’s most recently filed MD&A. The Company does not undertake to update or revise any forward-looking statements, except in accordance with applicable law.
